

I Still Love You (Prohorov, Misha Klein Remix)

Switch

oooh, oooh, yeah, yeah
aint it strange how i call out your name i met silence again cant remember when i last smiled within cos doing bad is in but im letting go im giving in cause i still love you (please come back to me) i still love you (hes everything i need)
i still love you
(you make my life complete)
i still loooove yooou (please come back to me)
i still love you
(hes everything i need) i still love you
(you make my life complete)
i still loooove yooou, oooh i need to breathe i need you to succeed i met silence again cause its love where in, i can hurt to say im immune to pain if you break these chains help me live again if ida known it was you i woulda said it was you but you gave up too soon you made it to you, i will risk my heart if you risk yours at hand boy im letting go im giving in
i still love you (hes everything i need)
i still love you
(you make my life complete)
i still loooove yooou (please come back to me)
i still love you
(hes everything i need) i still love you
(you make my life complete)
i still loooove yooou, oooh no i never want to say goodbye we shouldve gave ourselves another try shouldve only been on thing us against the wind now i only have myself to blame i promise ion this thing called rain wish our feelings never changed

but im letting go, im giving in
cause i still love you (please come back to me)
i still love you (hes everything i need)
i still love you
(you make my life complete)
i still loooove yooou (please come back to me)
i still love you
(hes everything i need) i still love you
(you make my life complete)
i still loooove yooou, oooh
