Find You

Phil Stacey

Felt like I was born on the backside of the moon Never been a sunshine child

I'm not one for pity even when I'm in the mood

But it's comin' to the point in my lifeWhen I need to know

So please, can you tell meWhere will I put my hands

When they're shakin'?

Where will my feet finally

Hit the ground? Who will I call when my

Heart starts achin'?

Where will I go when the

Ship goes down, down, down?I'm gonna find you

I'm gonna find you, yeah

I'm gonna find you

I'm gonna find you, yeahJust like the winter brings us the spring

Just like the mornin' daylight

I know I'll find you just like an angel

Fallin' from the heavenly skiesI don't know how

But I'm gonna get you into my lifeWhere will I put my hands

When they're shakin'?

Where will my feet finally

Hit the ground? Who will I call when my

Heart starts achin'?

Where will I go when the

Ship goes down, down, down?I'm gonna find you

I'm gonna find you, yeah

I'm gonna find you

I'm gonna find you, yeahOut on the skyline or right next door

No matter where you are I'm gonna find you

I'm gonna find you, yeah

I'm gonna find you

I'm gonna find you, yeahWhere will I put my hands

When they're shakin'?

Where will my feet finally

Hit the ground? Who will I call when my

Heart starts achin'?

Where will I go when the

Ship goes down?I'm gonna find you

I'm gonna find you, yeah

I'm gonna find you

I'm gonna find you, yeahOh, yeah Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah Alright, ohh

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/