

Crazy

The Cinema

Divided nations, miscommunication.
Ins and outs, ups and downs,
still we keep on smiling cause it's a crazy beautiful world, yeah.

See, I don't need no lessons on my imperfections. I f we were perfect, what sense would there be to livin?
Swear I learn from everyone I meet.
We're all crazy beautiful.

Everything is changing, everything is crazy.
Open eyes will embrace it, hold on tight so you don't waste it.
I know this life is crazy beautiful.

They say were all spinning in this sphere we're living,
yet somehow we've got say in how we live our lives.
Now tell me that ain't beautiful,
yeah, so crazy beautiful.

Everything is changing, everything is crazy.
Open eyes will embrace it, hold on tight so you don't waste it.
I know this life is crazy beautiful.

There's no time for regrets and there's no way to reset.
Open eyes will embrace it,
if you don't look you'll never taste it.
I know were all crazy beautiful.

What's a man got left to say when everything he knows is changing?
What's a man got left to say when everything he knows is changing?

Beautiful world, crazy beautiful world.
Beautiful world, crazy beautiful world.
Everything is changing, everything is crazy.
Open eyes will embrace it, hold on tight so you don't waste it.
I know this life is crazy beautiful.

There's no time for regrets and there's no way to reset.
Open eyes will embrace it,
if you don't look you'll never taste it.
I know were all crazy beautiful.
