Blinded

Evergrey

Compelled to speak when not to speak

My words lead and I follow

I must talk or else I'm weak

Let no one know my shell's hollowFalse world created

I just watch it come to life

Your faith's my weapon

And your trust by my sideLost all my senses

Can't feel, can't hear

I'm blinded, I'm blinded

Lost all my senses

Emotionally numb

Blinded, I'm blindedNothing's sacred and no one's safe

I'm feeding on denial

Getting careless, soon bound to fail

Fooled by my own betrayalAre you lost in a fury?

Fearing to fail

Are you aching for vengeance

And got lost on the way? Are you hiding your anger?

Fearing truth will prevail

Ashamed of the present

And what you've become todayFalse world created

I just watch it come to life

Your faith's my weapon

And your trust by my sideLost all my senses

Can't feel, can't hear

I'm blinded, I'm blinded

Lost all my senses

Emotionally numb

Blinded, I'm blindedLost all my senses

Can't feel, can't hear

I'm blinded, I'm blinded

Lost all my senses

Emotionally numb

Blinded, I'm blinded
