It Takes Two

Simply Saxophone

Yeah, sometimes you make me so crazy I wanna turn and go
Then you drive me wild and it makes me want to stay
Yeah, sometimes it feels like I'm walking down a rocky road
Just to fall in your arms at the end of the day
You ain't perfect, but your perfect for a man like me
And I know that I'm not the man that I'm supposed to be
But it's gonna take faith, it's gonna take trust
It's gonna take everything we've got
Even when we know it won't be enough
It's gonna take hope, we even need a little luck
And if anybody tells us we can make it on our own
It ain't true, oh 'cause, baby, it takes two
Yeah, sometimes my work and the world get the best of me
Then I come home and try to give you what's left of me
And sometimes you wonder if I'm even listening
And I hate how it hurts you when I forget the little things
But I'm not perfect, but for you I'll do the best I can
'Cause without you I'll never be more than just another lonely man
But it's gonna take faith, it's gonna take trust
It's gonna take everything we've got
Even when we know it won't be enough
It's gonna take hope, we even need a little luck
And if anybody tells us we can make it on our own
It ain't true, oh 'cause, baby, it takes two
I don't wanna walk alone now, baby
I know I can't make it on my own, baby
Even though sometimes you make me so crazy
I know together we can make it
With faith, it's gonna take trust
It's gonna take everything we've got
Even when we know it won't be enough
It's gonna take a little hope, we even need a little luck
And if anybody tells us we can make it on our own
It ain't true, oh 'cause, baby, it takes two
It's gonna take faith, we're gonna need a little trust
It's gonna take me, you, the both of us
It's gonna take two
