

Half as Dead

Demon Hunter

There is a light I've seen beneath the end
Nothing below can seem to hold it in
Deep enough to feel your heart break
To know I've gotta leave
Just below the surface, waiting
Close enough to breathe
When I go to sleep
Bury me three feet deep
I'm not half as dead as they are
Half as dead as you
All of the weight
Dead weight, to keep me there
Still not enough
No grey to fill the air
