

Then Again

Alabama

We could walk away now
Call it over and done
Say we fought the good fight
And nobody won Say we're both better off
That worse came to worst
So we didn't last
Hey, we're not the first But then again
If we give it one more try
We might find the feeling
Never really died
And there's still a chance to be
All we might have been
And find the love we had back then again Off to such a good start
But somehow it seems
We've let our hearts
Fall apart at the dreams We could throw in the towel
Walk away with our pride
Say it just wasn't worth
All the tears that we cried But then again
If we give it one more try
We might find the feeling
Never really died
And there's still a chance to be
All we might have been
Let's find the love we had back then again Baby, if we want it bad enough
We can make it better than it ever was And there's still a chance to be
All we might have been
Let's find the love we had back then again
