Fever Dreams

Hollow & Akimbo

I'm just an ocean. An aromatic pool, fast asleep.
Well, I have nothing, and I want nothing,
but I am something that someone wants,
so no more dreaming for now.They had a notion, the fever dreams of fools, bathed in cruel, green light.
Nobody knows me like you know me, 'cause nobody is me, like you are.
A simple bond to make, an easy one to break.
