

Static

The Almighty Proxy

Barely finding my heart empty,
It's full of waste and circuitry,
That i pre-programmed inside of me,
I'm falling apart

Can you hear what I say?
They have swallowed me in (Gnaw at fate! Hack away!)

(Clear the haze,
break the static)

(Wait for a tiny bit more)

(Clear the haze, break the static)

I have started to pray
Please start talking to me

A shaky start,
A hardened heart will make us lose trust
A simple lie, a crooked eye will devastate us

Can you hear what I say?
They have swallowed me in (Gnaw at fate! Hack away!)

(Clear the haze,
break the static)

(Wait for a tiny bit more)

(Clear the haze, break the static)

I have started to pray
Please start talking to me

You ask for His voice but you wont read His letters
There's magic in humility
You will find the static to be
A bi-product of not reading

I just wanted to be heard (You are! You are!)

How can you talk when you won't even listen?

Yes you have ears but there's something you're missing

You gotta stop screaming, "hear me speak!"
