Bomb the Russians

Fear

bomb the russians then they'll never get to you bomb the russians then we'll see who buries who strike while the iron is hot strike they won't get off a shot strike so our bombs from space protect the all american race strike end this menace red strike they'd be better off dead strike when their last blood is shed then we won't worry who's aheadbomb the russians we don't have to take their shit bomb the russians we'll be better of for it strike while they're all asleep strike kill the common creep strike they messed with the best now they die like the rest strike give 'em one more for me strike put it on t.v. strike cause the "duke" would do it he would make the russkies chew it bomb the russians bomb the russians bomb the russians
