

Beautiful Scar

AaRON

I need to know where you been
To know where we're going
But you're not letting me in
You're too scared to let that wall
Just tumble down again
I know you been hurt
Who are you fooling?
I think I'm breaking the curse
The closer I get to you
The more you let me learn
I will break you down tonight
Both my eyes are open wide
You don't have hide it
It's a beautiful scar
So don't leave me in the dark
You don't have to fight it
It's a beautiful scar
Now I know just who who are
I know it's harder to trust
When that trust is broken
You haven't given so much
'Cause everything that you gave
Was never quite enough?
You're always taking a chance
With what you're exposing
But if you want it to last
You can't be afraid to say
Where it all began
I will break you down tonight
Both my eyes are open wide
You don't have hide it
It's a beautiful scar
So don't leave me in the dark
You don't have to fight it
It's a beautiful scar
Now I know just who who are
It's a beautiful scar
Don't be afraid of who you really are
Will you show me?

Will you bare it all?
Will you show me?
I'll be there to break the fall
Don't you keep it all inside
That part of you has never died
I know you numbed it all away
That pain was way too much to take
But now I'm here, the dam broke loose
The tears will fall and you'll find you
You're not alone, we'll make it through
We've crossed that bridge to something new
You don't have hide it
You don't have to fight it
