

Take Us Home

Alan Doyle

This is my hand
Take it now itâ€™s yours to keep
These are my eyes
Look into them and youâ€™ll see
How a rainbow needs the rain
Or it will never shine again
Itâ€™s the same for you and me

These are my footsteps
Falling surely next to yours
This is the moment
That weâ€™ve been waiting for
Itâ€™s our story now to tell
Raise the curtain, ring the bell
And open up the doors

Hey, altogether we will be
Weâ€™re forever you and me
Hey, the sun will show us where to go
Love will give us heart and soul
And take us home

These are my arms
Come to them when youâ€™re cold
This is my shoulder
Rest your head and dream of home
For thereâ€™ll nights and thereâ€™ll be days
It seems a long, long ways away
But weâ€™ll make it now I know

This is my song
Itâ€™s the only one I know
This is my heart
Take it with you when you go
I wanna thank you for the show
No one wants to dance alone
Iâ€™ll see you down the road
