Drawn

Edge Of Haze

Within these walls their lies abide
Dreams are denied
Our will remains unheard
We are all meant to be the same
Imitators of the archetype
Unaware of better lifeBlackened is the way out
Blackened is the way outDrawn into endless night
Drawn into the open pyre of light
Into the open sea
Drawn unwillinglyA broken line of notion
Overshadowing the days
A one-way avail
In the emptiness of senseâ€¨
We are drawn into the fraudâ€¨
Within the power gridsWe are all meant to be
Imitators of the archetype
Imitating time and again
Within these walls their lies abide
Dreams are deniedBlackened is the way out
Blackened is the way out
Blackened is the way
