Triangle

Gordon Lightfoot

Oh, the gist of it all is the first day of fall

Is the day when my ship will set sail

The best of all friends will say good-bye again

There's still time for one last glass of aleWe'll sail away proudly, our backs to the wall

On a south wind and lots of good cheer

And when we've looked over the white cliffs of Dover

We'll be in Bahama next yearFrom Bermuda on down the Triangle around us

Will teach us a lesson or two

There's many a mate who unevenly stated

The course he had charted was true "Don't worry 'bout me," he said "Go down below

Give a certified sailor a turn

Just sip on your rum or I'll give you my thumb and say

Son you got something t' learn"It's a mighty hard way to come down and a mighty fine way to be found

So hand me my grip from an old sailing ship

Put the kiss of the dawn on my lips with some luck tonight

I might have her at my fingertipsOh, the best of all things is the first day of spring

When when the water runs heavy and fast

The mermaids have all gone to Davy Jones' Ball

And it seems their first trip was their last They had so much fun, they don't wish to return

To the beach where they lay all day long

They'd rather stay under and boy it's no wonder

When all the rock lobsters roll on

It's a mighty fine way to be foundTriangle Triangle, oh see my ship dangle

We're bound for Bahama my friend

Like lovers like danger, like babies like mangers

But that's where my storybook endsLike soldiers of fortune, believers in God

And all kings without crosses to bear

All sweepers and cleaners with no misdemeanors

Should try the triangle out thereIt's a mighty hard way to come down

And a mighty fine way to be found

So hand me my grip from an old sailing ship

Put the kiss of dawn on my lips with some luck tonight

I might have her at my fingertips When she took her last tumble, the sea bottom rumbled

There was no confusion or blame

The captain said, "Men we must answer again to the sea so ye may not complain" And as they lay sleeping down there in the deep

With their faces turned up to the stars

A tuna fish turned to a mermaid in bed and said

"There goes another sandbar"It's a mighty hard way to come down

And a mighty fine way to be found
So hand me my grip from an old sailing ship
Put the kiss of the dawn on my lips
With some luck tonight I might have her at my fingertips
