My Room

Strangers With Candy

Save yourself while you watch your back 'cause I'll be coming
Wanna listen to me cry, I'm gonna try
I'm back, one back for you to turn on just face it
What you're thinkin' about is impossible
I can't take it anymore listen to me
Come to my room in my bed
But the whore inside you never goes away
In the end it's okay
But the hole inside you really shows
Come with me before
You're regretting what you're doing
Wanna listen to me cry? gonna try
One slap in the face was all I needed to face it
Thinking about my situation, my situation
Come to my room in my bed
But the whore inside you never goes away
In the end it's okay
But the hole inside you really shows
Can you feel it? The commotion?
Do you feel it? Don't tell me no
And if you don't let the games begin

The scab from the past that you showed to me
Wasn't from me too much television
You laid by my side when everything's fucked
Do you know why?
Another slap in the face but not another for me
One foot in the mouth, another in the game
Why do you regret who you are?
Why do you resent me?
When all that I wanted was you
I've thrown myself away now 'cause of you
What more do you want from me?
How does it feel? What do you want?
Come to my room in my bed
But the whore inside you never goes away
In the end it's okay
But the hole inside you really shows
Come to my room in my bed

But the whore inside you never goes away
In my room in my bed
