Rescue Me

Slip-On Stereo

If use itâ€™s though I canâ€™t walk anymore, itâ€™s like my face hit the floor...
And all my thoughts are jumbled up together, I canâ€™t decide if I want or more, Just show the way to the door and let me out with all my insecurities...
Cause everyday and every night, with every fail, oh, and every try! I feel so afraid and Iâ€™m anything but brave~
Oh and I need more then just my mask and cape...
Cause I just need a hero, somebody to, come down here and rescue me~
Somebody to rely on, Somebody to, come down here and rescue me!
