Better Be Careful

Emma Bunton

I was going crazy
Seeing you around
And baby, you're asking
Are we getting down
'Cos I've seen you looking over at me
And I know you really like what you see
Yeah, yeah, yeah
You better be careful
You better beware
'Cos I'm on the lookout, baby
And I will be there
Something in your eyes, yeah, yeah
Something in your eyes
Something in your eyes, yeah, yeah
Something in your eyes
Suddenly I realized
I didn't know your name
But honey, when I look at you
I wanna play a game, yeah, yeah
'Cos I've seen you looking over at me
And I know you really like what you see
Yeah, yeah, yeah
You better be careful
You better beware
'Cos I'm on the lookout, baby
And I will be there
You better be careful
(You better be careful)
You better beware
(You better beware)
'Cos I'm on the lookout, baby
(Yeah)
And I will be there
Something in your eyes, yeah, yeah
Something in your eyes

Something in your eyes, yeah, yeah
Something in your eyes
Now that we have started

Things we didn't plan
If you wanna play now
Catch me if you can
'Cos I've seen you looking over at me
And I know you really like what you see
Yeah, yeah, yeah
(Yeah, yeah, yeah)
You better be careful
(You better be careful)
You better beware
(You better beware)
'Cos I'm on the lookout, baby
(Yeah)
And I will be there
(I will be there)
You better be careful
(You better be careful)
You better beware
(You better beware)
'Cos I'm on the lookout, baby
(Yeah)
And I will be there, yeah, yeah, yeah
(I will be there)
You better be careful
(You better be careful)
You better beware
(You better beware)
'Cos I'm on the lookout, baby
And I will be there, yeah yeah yeah
(I will be there)
You better be careful
(You better be careful)
You better beware
