Only the Young

Scandal

Another night in any town
You can hear the thunder of their cry
Ahead of their time
They wonder whyIn the shadows of a golden age
A generation waits for dawn
Brave carry on
Bold and the strongOnly the young can say
They're free to fly away
Sharing the same desires
Burnin like wildfireThey're seein' through the promises
And all the lies they dare to tell
Is it heaven or hell?
They know very well(chorus twice)Only the young can say
Only the young can say
Only the young can say
Only the young can say
Only the young can say
