Faith In Love

Eternal

Hmmm, hmmm Let's all have faith in love It's what we're dreaming of Let's all have faith in love Faith in love Dreaming of It's what we're dreaming of (That's all my love) Peace is the source of love Love To make things right Get up and fight another day and we'll be alright We should unite I know that life is cruel But remember the golden rule Tell me one day we can be free It may be painful, but just believe oh (Just believe) Life can be a better place (Life's a better place) Just hold on (Hold on) And I will be there for you Let's all have faith in love Faith in love Dreaming of It's what we're dreaming of Love Peace is the source of love To make things right We should unite Get up and fight another day and we'll be all right Why can't you see? To me things seem so clear Baby don't go, you know how much you mean to me Surely its better to receive, oh Memories of hate and pain (Memories of hate) Might not last Have faith in me Let's all have faith in love (Let's all have faith in love) Faith in love It's what we're dreaming of (It's what we're dreaming of) Dreaming of Peace is the source of love (To make things right) Love To make things right Get up and fight another day and we'll be alright We should unite Let's all have faith in love Faith in love It's what we're dreaming of (It's what we're dreaming of) Peace is the source of love Love To make things right We should unite Get up and fight another day and we'll be alright You're on the wrong track Jack I wanna see you filled with grace Get off the rat race Stop all this crap and get right back to a world that is good And a man that is on that phat! They have respect for each other And now we're busy beatin' down on a brother When will this madness end, somebody tell me Or is the world just crazy? Let's all have faith in love Faith in love It's what we're dreaming of Dreaming of, dreaming of Peace is the source of love Love To make things right We should unite Get up and fight another day and we'll be all right Let's all have faith in love Faith in love Peace is the source of love It's what we're dreaming of Love Get up and fight another day To make things right We should unite
