

Fuck Up

Face of Reality

I wake up on the wrong side of my floor
My clothes still smell like the night before
Where Am I?

Why am I talking to myself? (Self) I'm like a fat kid running through a candy store
I'm like a nympho surrounded by a bunch of whores

Why Can't I Just Get Control Over Myself? (Self) I'm not trying to be a saint.
I don't wanna be president someday.

I'm just trying to make my way. (Yeah) I'm sorry I'm a fuck up, yeah

I can't do anything right
I'm sorry I'm a fuck up, yeah
It ain't no one's fault but mine
I'm sorry I'm a fuck up, yeah
I can't do nothing right
I'm sorry I'm a fuck up (Yeah)

So if you fuck up all the time Let's all sing. Oops my bad I never said I'd ever get it right.

Da Da Da Da Da Da My girlfriend told me that she wants a break

And that bring with me is what turned her gay

What's with me; why does this happen all the time? (Time) I'm like a blind man walking through a perfume shop

I'm like a black guy switching ladies in front of the cops

Why can't I just get control over myself? (self) I wake up on the wrong side of my floor
My clothes still smell like the night before

Where Am I?

Why am I talking to myself? (Self) I'm like a fat kid running through a candy store
I'm like a nympho surrounded by a bunch of whores

Why Can't I Just Get Control Over Myself? (Self) I'm not trying to be a saint.
I don't wanna be president someday.

I'm just trying to make my way. (Yeah) I'm sorry I'm a fuck up, yeah

I can't do anything right
I'm sorry I'm a fuck up, yeah
It ain't no one's fault but mine
I'm sorry I'm a fuck up, yeah
I can't do nothing right
I'm sorry I'm a fuck up (Yeah)

Da Da Da Da Da DaI'm just a bad luck charm.
To blame when things go wrong.
Been cursed since I was born
Maybe one day I'll change
For now all I can say(Yeah)I'm sorry I'm a fuck up, yeah
I can't do anything right
I'm sorry I'm a fuck up, yeah
It ain't no one's fault but mine
