Firecracker

Voxtrot

I had a lust, I had a firecracker
I had a love for the sound of this world
I'm still in love, It's just a stab at laughter
It's just a mark of the people we are
But don't be daft no, It's just a monkey business
They're running signs no remainders of sins
We deal in abstract, no pain and no deliverance
This is a punch I'm not punching up against
Oh, It's all just mirrors, laugh and smoke
We are living in some tiny joke
And I'm here to show my love, ambition, dedication out toKick the walls, smash the lights, ricochets burning up
Firecracker
Firecracker
I will not complain at all
I, will never be tricked by you
No, no, no
I, will never be tricked by youI never thought that I would be this ugly
I never thought I'd be biting that hand
That feeds the mouth, that spits the seeds of money
I'm just a shell, I'm a sensitive man
We make a choice to unfold the tiny secret
Put it in lights for the grunt of this place
Is it the same thing to write it as to think it
I'm chopping noses just to ruin my face
Break down on the record company
Oh oh, did you turn your back on me, or did I turn my self against my, myselfI will kick the walls, smash the lights, ricochets burning up
Firecracker
Firecracker
I will not complain at all
I, will never be tricked by you
No, no, no
I, will never be tricked by youI'm still in love
I set the love in motion
I stare at love with the future we planned
Tell me you feel, this ain't complete emotion
I'm still in love with you baby, I am
Oh, did you turn your back on me
Or did I turn myself against myselfI'll kick the walls, smash the lights, ricochets burning up

Firecracker
Firecracker
I will not complain at all
But I, will never be tricked by you
No, no, no
I, will never be tricked by you
