Don't You Look Away

MONORAL

Don't you look away
If there is a way
It may take time to heal
So don't you dare ask meDon't you look away
Don't you look awayIf all your tears are real
You know I'll share the heat
It may take time to heal
So don't you dare ask meDon't you look away
Don't you look awayYou gotta get along
You gotta carry on
To make it on your ownYou gotta knock it out
Can you be the one
Who never gives it up
Anyone?
