The Tulsa Trap

Aqueduct

Tulsa is a drama and that's a genre I'm not particularly intered in here comes a comma, here comes an and I'm definitely breaking up the bandI've got a bloody hole where my heart used to be my brain's looking for stable company it's time to give the people what they need so totallydamn, it takes a man, a modern man to make the audio that you demand record stop, record stop now magically the music's in your handI've got a bloody hole where my heart used to be My brain's looking for stable company
its time to give the people what they need so totally, I'm begging you please I'm begging you please to just save me...
