Sometimes

Still Life

Sometimes this world seems so inside out and sometimes we lose our hope we fall to dought. It seems so easy to sit back and hide our eyes hide from the pain hide under our disguise. Sometimes. It's time to look up it's time to move on this time I'll say I wanted so much more. To learn, to grow, something to reach for. Sometimes. I'm reaching. I want to reach out and show I care. To help someone sometime somewhere. To work from our hearts to make positive change work together and rearrange. Or tell me are these just words we scream to entertain ourselves to make us feel we're part of something else. I want a chance to stand for change to work together to think and rearrange. Some
