Nothing Without You

Mando Diao

You were so down child last time I saw you
Tears in the rain no one will notice
Life doesn't have to be such a struggle
Beat you to sleep awake you with anger
It's a bitter world and it's getting worse
As it drags you down as it tears your heart
You're a withered rose with thorns as sharp as ever
So remember
That he's nothing without you
Nothing without you
So just leave him like that
Yeah he's nothing without you
Nothing without you
So just leave him like that
He's gonna beg you (beg you) on his bended knees
Boy you're in trouble my eyes have darkened
She was my first my last my everything
You stole her and used her and left her in pieces
Clumsy your dance heavy's your stumble
It's a crazy world and it's getting worse
As it soaks your bone and it sucks your blood
She's a withered rose with thorns as sharp as ever

So remember
That he's nothing without you
Just nothing without you
So just leave him like that
Yeah he's nothing without you
Nothing without you
So just leave him like that
He's gonna beg you (beg you) on his bended knees
You're nothing without her
Nothing without her
You're alone alone in this cold-hearted world
You're nothing without her
Nothing without her
You're all alone in this cold-hearted world
You're nothing without her
You're nothing (nothing) nothing (nothing) nothing (ooh)

You're nothing without her (nothing without)
Nothing without her (nothing without)
So just leave it like that
Yeah you're nothing without her
You're nothing without her (nothing without)
You're nothing without her (nothing without)
So just leave it like that
You're gonna beg her (beg her) on your bended knees
