

Sweet Amber

Metallica

Wash your back, so you won't stab mine
Get in bed with your own kind
Live your life, so you don't see mine
Drape your back, so you won't shineWash your back, so you won't stab mine
Get in bed with your own kind
Live your life, so you don't see mine
Drape your back, so you won't shineOoh, then she holds my hand
And I lie to get a smile
Ooh, then she holds my hand
And I lie to get a smileUsing what I want
To get what you want
Using what I want
To get what you wantUsing what I want
To get what you want
Using what I want
To get what you wantOoh, sweet Amber
How sweet are you?
How sweet does it get?
How sweet are you?
How sweet does it get?Chase the rabbit, fetch the stick
She rolls me over 'til I'm sick
She deals in habits, deals in pain
I run away but I'm back againChase the rabbit, fetch the stick
She rolls me over 'til I'm sick
She deals in habits, deals in pain
I run away but I'm back againOoh, then she holds my hand
And I lie to get a smile
And she squeezes tighter
I still lie to get a smileUsing what I want
To get what you want
Using what I want
To get what you wantUsing what I want
To get what you want
Using what I want
To get what you wantOoh, sweet Amber
How sweet are you?
How sweet does it get?
How sweet are you?
How sweet does it get?She holds the pen that spells the end

She traces me and draws me in
She holds the pen that spells the end
She traces me and draws me in Ooh, sweet Amber
(Ooh, sweet Amber) Ooh, sweet Amber
How sweet are you?
How sweet does it get?
How sweet are you?
How sweet does it get? It's never as sweet as it seems
