

Stare At The Sun

MDFMK

The ego that feeds you
Ties you up and suffocates you
Favorite little monkey
Drags you down and complicates you
Love and hate combination
Won't survive acceleration
Soul and body coexist
Face the antagonist At the right place
At the right time
How does it feel? Don't take this the wrong way
Don't hold it up to scrutiny
I'm more than you could ask for
But none of what you need So don't take this the wrong way
But nothing is for free
It's only an illusion
Impossibility Don't take this the wrong way
When you stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
The dislocation
Confusion
Total lack of destination
Nothing left to ask for
Greed exceeds all moderation
Mind over matter
Singing lady's Getting fatter
Lock the bunker
Kill the light
Reality is kept outside When the right price
Makes the right deal
You don't disagree
Down the wrong way
Of a one-way

Dead-end street Don't take this the wrong way
Don't hold it up to scrutiny
I'm more than you could ask for
But none of what you need So don't take this the wrong way
But nothing is for free
It's only an illusion
Impossibility Don't take this the wrong way
When you stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see? A million excuses
To avoid compatibility
A humble disposition
Wrapped up in animosity
Suffer the dilemma
Choose it voluntarily
Stare at the sun
What do you see? Don't take this the wrong way
Don't hold it up to scrutiny
I'm more than you could ask for
But none of what you need So don't take this the wrong way
But nothing is for free
It's only an illusion
Impossibility Don't take this the wrong way
When you stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
What do you see?
Stare at the sun
