

Pretty Baby

The DU Idiosingcrasies

You hold your hands out you're looking at me
I hesitate this time

Are you for real or are you nothing?
a picture in my mind
a picture in my mind

You said these things so many times before I wish I could believe

But when I ask you
I can see right through

Pretty baby won't you come back this time
cause you been hiding from your problems too long Just so many ways you can lie never know, never find, never find you
And everything just keeps rolling on and on

I gave you chances so many chances you took them out the door

And now I'm wondering and now I'm waiting to give yo more, to give you more

'Cause when you walk away
I want you to stay

Pretty baby won't you come back this time
cause you been hiding from your problems too long

Tell me anything you want me to do Tell me anything I'll do it for you (X3)

Tell me anything you want me to do tell me anything anything anything

Pretty baby won't you come back this time
cause you been hiding from your problems too long
