

Sacred Cow

Crowded House

Deliberate provocation
Is what you gave to me
You got me going
You got me going How could such a simple thing
Get so out of control
You let me down again
You let me down again I know my place inside your heart The painted figure that glows in the dark
No you're not mysterious now
I don't worship that sacred cow
In my head In my head
In my head
You'd never know it
You'd never know it I went home in a jealous rage
You were rolling on the glass in a younger age
You know what's good for me
I know you're too good for me
'Cause I have seen inside your heart Religious figures that glow in the dark
No you're not too precious now
And I don't worship that sacred cow
Go and try as you may To get a sharp shift on Judgment Day
You let me down again
You let me down again
I know my place inside your heart The painted figure that glows in the dark
No you're not too precious now
I don't worship that sacred cow
Go and try as you may To get a sharp shift on Judgment Day
Sacred cow
Judgment Day
Coming your way
