

Traps

Years & Years

I was a ghost, I was adored, by you.
I trapped an owl, I shot a hare for you.
Can I ignite? Can I burn like never before?
What you desire, it's inside of me I am sure. My intentions were good.
My intentions were good. I am the garden,
I am the sea,
Will you lay a trap for me? I am the garden,
I am the sea,
Will you lay a trap for me? I gave you words, I planted trees, by your bed.
You said you loved me, you said you'd have me instead.
Can I ignite? Can I burn like never before?
What you desire, it's inside of me, that I'm sure. My intentions were good.
My intentions were good. You hold me down, at night we tear ourselves apart
You hold me down, I know things, do you from the start? And I am the garden,
I am the sea,
Will you lay a trap for me? I am the garden,
I am the sea,
Will you lay a trap for me? Oh, the sound of fear.
Oh, oh, oh, oh, the sound of fear. Don't let the story down, ooh
Don't let the story down, ooh
Don't let the story down, ooh And don't let the story down.
