

Crashed Into Love

Spandau Ballet

We stand alone
Warmed by the light that reflects in your eyes
I feel inside an emotional storm
And a heart like a sky This moment takes to somewhere unknown
And what I'm feeling is thrilled to the bone
Been chasing rainbows all of my life
Now I know that was wrong I've found the gold deep in my soul
And I want to hang on
Just one look of encouragement
And what I have here is heaven sent
And hit from above I just crashed into love, crashed into love
And I'm feeling that when powers inside
When forces collide, this can't be denied And now it hits me, love overdrive
I try to stand my ground but I can't contrive
These are the days that we'll think that we dreamed
For the rest of our lives This moment takes to somewhere unknown
And what I'm feeling is thrilled to the bone
And hit from above I just crashed into love, crashed into love
And I'm feeling that when powers inside
When forces collide, this can't be denied I just crashed into love, crashed into love
And I know that I was hit by surprise
Between open eyes, emotions arise And now we're living the June of our lives
In the heat of the day
We're on the eve of experience now
And nothing will take away Crashed into love
Crashed into love Just one look of encouragement
And what I have here is heaven sent
And sent from above I just crashed into love, crashed into love
And I'm feeling that when powers inside
When forces collide, this can't be denied I just crashed into love, crashed into love
And I know that I was hit by surprise
Between open eyes, emotions arise
I just crashed into love
