Last Minute Shakedown

Son Volt

You're constantly defining what's left
A half-empty bottle of beer
Your misses, match-ups
And now here [unverified]A weight lifted, a weight on the next [unverified]
Some days you don't know why
And high a-bove it's all clear
It's a long way downLast minute shakedown
Last minute shakedownPieces break apart, rearrange
To make focus clear
Out of chaos comes order
And back againThe truth is plain but not seen
Broken out by weathered thoughts
Lifted up, leveled off
And carried downLast minute shakedown
Last minute shakedownIt's not easy to change
Not losing this thirst [unverified]
It's not easy to change
Not losing this thirstSome days it's a bull to drive
Some days it's a walking dream
Some days like gravity dropping
Some days it pulls you downLast minute shakedown
Last minute shakedownSome days it's a bull to drive
Some days it's a walking dream
Some days like gravity dropping
Some days it pulls you down
