Moonspell

Outside the mythic Rains let us know we are not insane blood debts still to be paid (instead)we celebrate the Stranger Inside the mythic Pains are playedblood doubts are asked again beware the answers you can not tame(might)take you too far away
I am going haunt you Come here to haunt you Say what you will Say what you are
I am going hurt you And protect youAnd if we survive this dawn we wish we'd see the Day die to comeback a single time that face in the window is never the same Say what you areCome here to haunt you
I am going haunt you
And protect you Say what you will
I am going hurt youIII/IX/MM-Aurora
