

Emergency (Intro)

Tank

Got a lady on the line
Screamin' 'bout what she need, oh
I done got this call a thousand times
I'm leaving, rushing to see, oohI got the sirens on (I'm running every light)
She says she's home alone
(I'm needed in her life)
Until I get there girl
Stay on the lineIt's an emergency
I'm rushing there to handle mine
It's an emergency
'Cause we ain't got a lot of timeI gotta save her, if I'm any later
Somebody might get there before me
Emergency, that 911's for me
EmergencyWhen I got there, put her on the floor
She leakin' but she still breathin', ooh
Give her mouth to mouth a little more
Repeat it to show her I mean it, ohI think I know what's wrong
(Lemme turn off all the lights)
She won't be here for long
(If I don't get this right)
Girl, I just can't lose you
So hold on, pleaseIt's an emergency
I'm rushing there to handle mine
It's an emergency
'Cause we ain't got a lot of timeI gotta save her, if I'm any later
Somebody might get there before me
Emergency, that 911's for me
EmergencyIt's a good thing that you called me when you did
'Cause you were slowly fading and wasn't gon' make it
I'm your doctor, see, these tools I'm working with?
For me to operate, I need you to be nakedI can feel your heartbeat, uh, uh, oh
Beatin' like it's so deep, uh, uh, oh
Give up on you never
I'll make it betterIt's an emergency
I'm rushing there to handle mine
It's an emergency
'Cause we ain't got a lot of timeI gotta save her, come any later
Somebody might get there before me

Emergency, that 911's for me
Emergency
