You Could Always Cry

Pugwash

I've never seen such a sad beauty queen
And I never dreamed she could be so mean
It's a crying shame
It happens every day
I've never known such a heart made of stone
If she turns away, she is out on her own,
It's a crying shame,
It happens everywhere
So show me how truly you believe in all of the things that we say and we do, tel the truth, no more lies
You could always cry
One sunny day not a summer make
And one look from you doesn't mean I'll break
It's a crying shame, it happens everyday
So show me how truly you believe, in all of the things that we say and we do, tell the truth, no more lies!
You could always cry
