How Does It Feel

Bright Light Bright Light

I want you to be happy
I want you to be proud to hold on to somebody and forget about the crowd
You don't need a reason to talk out loud if you've got something to sayLike what you think about me now
I'm not always around but you know when I reach out I feel the same
I know that I can't shout loud enough for you to hear me but hear me out when you say"How does it feel where you are?"
I don't know cos I'm in your arms, you're still home wherever I go
How does it feel to be free?
I don't know cos you've got me. You're still home wherever I goI want to be forever, not just a little while
I want to see you happy, I want to see you shine
And I want to be the reason you laugh out loud when there's nothing to say
So when you think about me now, think about that person only you bring out
You let me stay away from those dark clouds
You take over the seasons so hear me out when you say"How does it feel where you are?"
You should know cos I'm in your arms, you're still home wherever I go
How does it feel to be free?
I don't know cos you've got me. You're still home wherever I go(When you think about it, when you think about it) It isn't that bad
(When you think about it, when you think about it) We're only away so long
(When you think about it, when you think about it) The hours in a day
(When you think about it, when you think about it) mean nothing at all, so when you say"How does it feel where you are?"
You should know cos I'm in your arms, you're still home wherever I go
How does it feel to be free?
I don't know cos you've got me. You're still home wherever I go
"How does it feel where you are?"
You should know cos I'm in your arms, you're still home wherever I go
How does it feel to be free?
I don't know cos you've got me. You're still home wherever I go
