Flash In the Pan

Tower Of Power

I thought I found a love that glittered like gold My sweet thing
the apple of my eye;
Then I saw her driving
right of my life
In a brand new silver blue Cadillac I would have bet my last dollar and the shirt right off my back, yeah.
That our love was the real thing,
not just a flash, flash in the pan;
Not just a flash, a flash in the pan.
I've been fooled for the first
And the last time,
She used to say the words
that sounded so sweet She soothed me,
she knew just what to do and Just about the time that she had me wrapped up
She skated with the man
that had the crash.
How could you do that to me
after all that we've been through.
I've found a love that I can count on
not just a flash, flash in the pan;
I don't need a flash, a flash in the pan
'cause I've been fooled for the first
And the last time.
Now there's only one thing that I want out of life.
And that's to find a woman that ain't jive.
She don't have to look like a Hollywood star.
As long as she loves me
and know I'm the king.
She'll be the queen of my castle and no one will ever take her place,

'Cause she'll be the one that I can count on
not just a flash, flash in the pan;
She won't be no flash,
a flash in the pan, flash in the pan.

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/