Hello There

Cimorelli

Hello There,
By The Corner,
As I pass you by for the last time,
Tell me do I look Familiar?
Cause To me, I can see, That I've seen you before,

Hello There!
To My shoes on the pavement,
Same Old place where they are,
Cause I used to be Fallin' apart,
But now i'm back to the start...

It took me so long to realize,
It took me so long to see,
So much more out there,
A new harmony to my... melody!

And the song goes on in my head (song goes on)
And the song goes on in my head (song goes on)

Hello There, Could you spare me a moment,
As a matter of fact, throw your clock out the window!
And give me all your time,
Make it Mine!

It took me so long to realize,
It took me so long to see,
So much more out there,
A new harmony to my... melody!

And the song goes on in my head (song goes on)
And the song goes on in my head (song goes on)

It goes...!

Oh baby, Baby, Baby, Baby, Baby,

Oh baby, Babyyyy,

Can't stop thinkin about you,
Can't get you outta my mind,
You song is playin' in my head...
Over and over again!

It took me so long to realize,
It took me so long to see,
So much more out there,
A new harmony to my... melody!

It took me so long to realize,
It took me so long to see,
So much more out there,
A new harmony to my... melody!

And the song goes on in my head (song goes on)
And the song goes on in my head (song goes on)

It goes...!

Oh baby, Baby, Baby, Baby, Baby,

Oh baby, Babyyyy,

And the song goes on in my head,
And the song goes on in my head,
And the song goes on in my head,
And the song goes on in my head,
And the song goes on in my head,
Oh baby, Baby now...
