

Hardest of Hearts

Florence + The Machine

There is love in your body but you can't hold on to it It pours from your eyes and spills from your skin

The tenderest touch, Leaves the darkest of marks and the kindest of kisses break the hardest of hearts

The hardest of hearts
The hardest of hearts
The hardest of hearts

but you can't get it out It get stuck in your head won't come out of you mouth Sticks to your tongue
and it shows on your face
that the sweetest of words have the bitterest taste

Darling, how I loved you from the start but you'll never know what a fool I've been Darling how I've loved you from the start but that's no excuse fir the state I'm in

The hardest of hearts
The hardest of hearts
The hardest of hearts

There is love in our bodies and it holds us together and it pulls us apart when we're holding each other We all need something to hold in the night
We don't care if it hurts

when we're holding too tight

There's love in your body
but you can't get it out
It gets stuck in your head won't come out of your mouth

but you'll never know what a fool I've been
but that's no excuse for the state that I'm in

The hardest of hearts
The hardest of hearts

My heart swells like water at weight Can't stop myself before it's too late Hold onto your heart
'cause I'm coming to fight you
'cause I'm coming to break you

Hold on (repeated)
The hardest of hearts (repeated)
