

Coming Undone

Wicked Brew Band

Keep holding on
When my brain's ticking like a bomb
    Guess the black thoughts
Have come again to get meSweet bitter words
    Unlike nothing I have heard
    Sing along, mockingbird
You don't affect meThat's right
    Deliver it to my heart
    Please strike
Be deliberateWait, I'm coming undone
    Irate, I'm coming undone
    Too late, I'm coming undone
What looks so strong, so delicateWait, I'm starting to suffocate
    And soon I anticipate
    I'm coming undone
What looks so strong, so delicateChoke, choke again
    I find my demons were my friends
    Pity me in the end
They're out to get meSince I was young
    I tasted sorrow on my tongue
    And this sweet sugar gun
Does not protect meThat's right
    Trigger between my eyes
    Please strike
Make it quick nowWait, I'm coming undone
    Unlaced, I'm coming undone
    Too late, I'm coming undone
What looks so strong, so delicateWait, I'm starting to suffocate
    And soon I anticipate
    I'm coming undone
What looks so strong, so delicateI'm trying to hold it together
    Head is lighter than a feather
    Looks like I'm not getting better
Not getting betterWait, I'm coming undone
    Unlaced, I'm coming undone
    Too late, I'm coming undone
What looks so strong, so delicateWait, I'm starting to suffocate
    And soon I anticipate
    I'm coming undone

What looks so strong, so delicate
