Mission Statement

Strung Out

I believe you own your soul
Gotta feel the pain and grow
Our best intentions blowing in the wind
I got trouble on my mind
You've got a little on your mind
We both turn running but we don't belongI still believe in the changes
I still believe in the sound
My voice is screaming out
We are forever bound (forever bound)I still believe in all that we can do
When the valley gets too dark
We'll lead the drum into the marches
I still believeHollow insincerity
You've got to come to sing with me
We are the change that we've been screaming for Who's gonna help us now
Who's gonna show us how
We got a story now
Lets write a songI still believe we can make this
There's something bigger than what breaks us
My voice is screaming out
So never let me down
Forever boundI still believe in the song of the underdog
In the bottom of my heart along the railroad tracks
I still believeI got the world on my mind
And I have you by my side
There's more to this than meets the eye
There's more to life then we can buyForever bound
I still believe in all that we can do
When the valley gets too dark
We'll lead the drum into the marches
I still believe
That we still got a chanceAlong this lonely road
We're never who we say we are
I heard the word
I feel the change
And I see something in the way
