

The Past

Sevendust

And I sing songs about the past the way we grew up and all the lose ends we used to laugh everybody ditch this song and go to a better one called the past by nevershoutnever enjoy! Lays a soul I left behind

The edge of sorrow was reached but now I'm fine
I filled the hole I had inside I'll pray it doesn't scream my name
So I light a flame and let it breathe
The air that kills the shame I'm up, I'm down
Like a roller coaster racing through my life
I've erased the past again A risky morning, I feel like I'm alive
I can't believe I made it through this time
The edge of sorrow I lived in for some time
(Lived in for some time)
Has left the hole I have inside The burden is I try my hate
Was the last thing I ever felt
Or thought I could escape I'm up, I'm down
Like a roller coaster racing through my life
I've erased the past again I'm up, I'm down
Like a roller coaster racing through my life
I've erased the past again You let me here then broke me down
The difference is this time around
I will not let you see me drown I'm up, I'm down
Like a roller coaster racing through my life
I've erased the past again I'm up, I'm down
Like a roller coaster racing through my life
I've erased the past again Erased the past again now
Erased the past again Beneath the water
That's fallen from my eyes
