

Pretty Girl's Lie

Trey Songz

(Verse)

She grew up without a father
Never knew how to love a man
She's addicted to breaking hearts and moving on
So I never really stood a chance
And the sparkle in her eyes
They shine so flawless I'm amazed
Blinded by an angel's face
It's the sweetest poison
One kiss and now you got the venom in your veins
Believing everything her lips say

(Chorus)

Pretty girls lie
Lipstick in her smile
Makes you want to believe
But pretty girls hide
Pain so deep inside
She can't even see

Pretty girls lie
Pretty girls lie

(Verse)

Got you walking through a maze ,yeah
Eyes closed tryin' to find your way
Got your arms reached out
Hoping she gon' make a sound
But she don't wanna be found
But she'll tell you come anyway
And you don't know the difference
From the real or the fake
Devil in the dress, but an angel in the face
They're forever yours but that's only for the day
Is it real when you calling my name

(Chorus)

Pretty girls lie
Lipstick in her smile
Makes you want to believe
But pretty girls hide
Pain so deep inside
She can't even see

Pretty girls lie

(Verse)

I want to give the benefit of the of the doubt

The best in her I wanna help bring it out

I know something's missing inside

If she lets me I can show proof

Girl there ain't no running from the truth

She says I'll be there

Girl don't just tell me what I wanna hear

(Chorus)

Pretty girls lie

Lipstick in her smile

Makes you want to believe

But pretty girls hide

Pain so deep inside

She can't even see

Pretty girls lie

(Outro)

Such a pretty face and

She can't find her way

But you beautiful girl

Most to the world

Can't trust what she says

After so many break-ups and make-ups in life

Could've been making up but end up in a fight

Ooh, tell me why

Pretty girls lie
