

In My Eyes

TQ

I've been out here a couple of days
Probably gonna be a couple more
I'm sorry but I've always been this way
Gotta get some paper for sure You know the kinds that's walking the streets on night
When you see 'em ye you locking your door
You get the impression that something ain't right
If I don't need it what I'm hussling for Look into my eyes
Look into my eyes
Are you scared of what you see?
Could it be you're just like me
But you just in disguise
Look into my eyes
You're just like me
Are you scared of what you see?
Could be you're just like me
But you just in denial
Look into my eyes
You ask if I'm a hussler for sure
What a waste of opportunity
Could've been so much more
Could've played some replacing How many times you've been on a hundred eighteen
I'm just trying to make it to school
Odds are baby you're smarter than you think
So this is what I want you to do Look into my eyes
Look into my eyes
Are you scared of what you see?
Could it be you're just like me
But you just in disguise
Look into my eyes
You're just like me
Are you scared of what you see?
Could be you're just like me
But you just in denial
Look into my eyes
You can see the man in the mirror
'Cause then we never built off things
I try so hard, I guess it's why is hard to relate
So you hate, and you hate some more
Every day, so I must ignore() x2

Look into my eyes
Look into my eyes
Are you scared of what you see?
Could it be you're just like me
But you just in disguise
Look into my eyes
You're just like me
Are you scared of what you see?
Could be you're just like me
But you just in denial
Look into my eyes
