

30 Days

Never Shout Never

30 days till Christmas and all I know
Is I'm not quite ready to let go of this past year
I have so much to show
One more month and all I need is a sign from you that you think of me, if you don't Then please just say so
'Cause all I do
Is think of you And it's wearing me out
It's wearing me down, this holiday is nothing but frowns for me
But I've got a gift
You see
I'm making a list, hell I'll check it twice
Of all the things you've done in my life
Then I'll send it your way
So you see why I love you Who would have thought that someone like me could of fall in love so easily.
I know that you know that I know what I want
I know I can't have it but give it a thought
I know that it sounds crazy baby
But all I do is think of you It's wearing me out
It's wearing me down, this holiday
is nothing but frowns for me
But I've got a gift
You see
I'm making a list, hell I'll check it twice
Of all the things you've done in my life
Then I'll send it your way
So you see why I love Everything you throw my way
I know it's hard to say, but it's a crying shame
That I came all this way, with so much to say
But all that came out was happy holiday
A home cooked meal and a nice warm bed
Somebody to love a place to lay my head
But I got 30 days and I#ma make them count
'Cause I can't call it Christmas without someone to smile about
