

End of Time

Sanii Makhalima

The end of time
Is this the end of my line life
I need you now
I dont wanna fall, fall in the dark
Im sitting on a ledge facing destiny, tryna figure out which way to go
It feels like my head is stuck on a gelatin and the blade is foever drawing close
Without you my life feels like a day without a sun
And for you lm willing to give up my very existence

The end of time
Is this the end of my life line
I need you now
