All Will Wait

Arid

We wait for love to come
Well all go down
Well take our turns
We walk across a new born worldAll will wait for us
All will wait for usI sail along your shore
I broke you then
Ill break some moreAll will wait for us
All will wait for usThe ship is turning over now
Were trying to hold it up
Just one more time tonight
I feel all rightBeen turning on that very point
You ought to stay anyway
Dont you wanna bring holy love today
Dont you wanna prayOh, no, yeah, all gunned down
Hold your tears
Oh, dont you break my very own life
Hate, pulling me downYou will walk, you will walk
Hot tears coming down hard
The pain inside, dont you hate
'Cause I know you
We just walk, we just walkAll will wait for us
All will wait for us
