State Of Emergency

Reality Control

she's seductive, but she does it well she'll charge you by the hour for a straight trip down to hell she'll correct you, when you think you know she's gonna let me go, she's gonna let me go I'm not a lover, but I'm still concerned That when you touch the fire That your heart could still be burned I should warn you that I know
she's gonna let me go, she's gonna let me go see all those familiar faces crowded in my mind
I know that now is not the time
Run around with someone else satisfy yourself but don't fool me don'tcha let it be a state of emergency pledge allegiance to the cause she'll tell you that she's leaving if you don't put your life on pause she'll surprise you, when you think you know she's gonna let you go, she's gonna let you go see all these familiar faces

crowded in my mind
I know that now is not the time
I know it's hard when life's unfair but that doesn't mean you shouldn't care show me the way to reach your heart Where do I start
crowded in my mind
I know that now is not the time
satisfy yourself but don't fool me
