Everyday Love

The Mojo Men

Girl, it hit me like a bolt right out of the blue
I was done, that was it
I was way past through
I always swore I'd never act like a lovesick fool
But these days that's all I do
From the moment I laid eyes on you, I knew

This ain't no everyday love
It's a gift from the Good Lord up above
Never had a feeling, feel like this one does
I need it every day
This ain't no everyday love
Ain't no everyday love

Just about the time I thought I'd felt it all, phone rang
You cried and said the doctor called
She's the sweetest thing I think I've ever seen
Red hair, blue eyes, her daddy's grin
From the moment I laid eyes on her, I was sure

This ain't no everyday love
It's a gift from the Good Lord up above
Never had a feeling feel like this one does
I need it every day
This ain't no everyday love

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday
I thank Him every Sunday

This ain't no everyday love
It's a gift from the Good Lord up above
Never had a feeling feel like this one does
I need it every day
This ain't no everyday love
Ain't no everyday love

(Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday)
This ain't no everyday love
(Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday)
This ain't no everyday love
