Jinja Safari

Pride yourself on being shy
I heard your ego whisper
That its best not to even tryI need to lean on a wall
Can we say something funny
I could buy you a drink
If you lend me the moneyIt sounds like fun
I cant come for long
Ive got a mountain of excuses
But right now I cant decide on oneOh for gods sake just relax
You come into cool off so throw off your slacks
Oh my dear dont you believe
That everybodys watching the way that you breatheOh for gods sake just relax
You come into cool off so throw off your slacks
Oh my dear dont you believe
That everybodys watching the way that you breatheI faked my way
For long enough
So if you tell me to smile one more time
I dont know how I will respondI had to lean on a wall
Pray you say something funny
I can buy you a drink
If you lend me the moneyOh for gods sake just relax
You come into cool off so throw off your slacks
Oh my dear dont you believe
That everybodys watching the way that you breatheOh for gods sake just relax
You come into cool off so throw off your slacks
Oh my dear dont you believe
That everybodys watching the way that you breathe
